Royal Winnipeg Rifles Museum & Archives

Library collection

Title:	RWpgRif library collection
Title source:	Title based on the contents of the collection
Description level:	Collection
Collection number:	-
Dates:	1870 – present
Physical description:	263 books 5 newspaper titles 6 periodical titles 94 rare books 310 technical/training manuals
Material details:	Records in the collection consist of books, manuals, newspapers, and periodicals
Administrative history:	Since its inception, the Royal Winnipeg Rifles (RWpgRif) Regimental Museum (ca.1974) received gifts and donations of books, manuals, and periodicals. These titles remained in storage until 2016/17, after which they were formally catalogued according to the Library of Congress (LC) classification system as part of the RWpgRif's 2016-18 Regimental Museum Renewal Programme. Items were copied catalogued from the following on-line catalogues: the Canadian War Museum (Ottawa), the Library and Archives Canada (Ottawa), The Military Museums Library (TMM, University of Calgary), and WorldCat.org.
Scope and content:	The RWpgRif library collection consists of books, manuals and periodicals donated by a variety of sources which have been compiled as a collection. Catalogue subjects include military conflict periods (North-West Rebellion, Boer War, First World War, and Second World War); technical manuals used by the regiment; and reference materials pertaining to uniforms, insignias, and weaponry. Rare book titles include personal narratives, unit histories, books with limited print runs, and rare titles identified in the Canadian War Museum library catalogue.
